* If there are any conflicts with the listed performance dates on the syllabus, please see your director ASAP. Some major conflicts can be addressed and or excused; however, unapproved conflicts (especially at the last minute) will strongly effect student grades. Rehearsal and performance etiquette are big part of Dance Magnet expectations. Please talk with your studios and work place now about potential conflicts ahead of time.

Class Materials: Required Dress code for dance-Any Solid color leotard, Camisole (no skimpy bra tops), DANCE leggings, tights, modest spandex shorts, NS dance spirit wear, tight "ballet" sweater or NS dance sweatshirt for cover up. Performance shoes- Black jazz shoes, nude/brown/pink ballet shoes. Hair will be braided and off face for spring show performances. HAIR OFF THE FACE. NO GUM!!

Academic Honesty:

In general, show that you are a responsible young adult, preparing to become a contributing member of society.

Recovery Statement: NSCHS will provide recovery opportunities to all students who ask (course average 74 or below) regardless of prior assignment completion. The recovery must be completed 10 days before the end of the semester. There will be no other make-up assignments outside of recovery in this course.

Academic Honesty Statement: Plagiarism is cheating. It is essential that students understand the importance of refraining from plagiarism and other forms of cheating. Students who plagiarize all or parts of a given assignment will receive a failing grade for ALL PARTS of that assignment, even if this results in a failing grade for the course. This includes failure to cite research sources. Avoiding plagiarism and ensuring proper citation will be a prominent topic during the research portion of the course.

Course Evaluation: Dancers are graded on in the following areas throughout the year.

Daily participation and etiquette 35%

Creative projects 20%

Performance tests 25%

Final Exam 20%

Final Exam Exemption Policy: Graduating seniors may exempt Second Semester final exams for any class in which the following criteria are met during the last twelve (12) weeks (begins February 19th):

- 80 for higher
- no more than three (3) excused absences
- no unexcused absences
- no more than two (2) tardies for this class
- no ISS, OSS, or Extended Detention for any reason.
- Students must have teacher approval before exempting exams.

Communication with the instructor: Mrs. Smith uses REMIND 101 for general class communication. Class code is _____ . Please use SmithAndrea@fultonschools.org for individual needs. Dance department information concerning shows, tickets sales, and activities will be posted on www.northspringsdance.com .

All dancers must communicate with the dance teachers daily about sickness, injury, or ANY reason they are unable to participate. Parent and or doctor note may be required for students who miss more than a few classes. Students should never dance when injured or signs of potential injury. Please monitor your own body and be smart about proper warm ups. We want to keep you dancing!

Office Hours for students: See Ms Kent if you need one on one help! She is available before or after school. However, the studios are not open for student use without teacher supervision. Please make specific arrangements with the directors for individual or group rehearsals after school.

Sincerely,

Andrea Smith

We have read and discussed the Dance Magnet course syllabus. I am aware of the policy as well as the requirements for this class.
